Marin Ranch Camp

At Marin Ranch Camp our mission is clear: to connect children with the natural world while building lifelong friendships and memories. Everything we do is intentional and driven by our core values of Friendship, Adventure, Community, Tradition & Safety (or as we like to call them “just the FACTS”). While we offer all of the fun, traditional camp activities like canoeing archery and sitting around the campfire roasting s’mores, our program goes much deeper than that. Our loving and well-trained team of counselors creates a nurturing environment where campers feel safe to step outside of their comfort zone, challenge themselves with new adventures and make new friends. Campers actively create and participate in the tradition that only sleep-away camps can offer.
